

Marrickville Labor introduces it's new team for the local council elections.

Marrickville Labor will put forward a fresh new team for the local government election in September.

North Ward will be headed by Superannuation fund Manager Laura Wright.

"The new Labor team will bring expertise, commitment and a fresh approach to Marrickville Council." said Ms Wright

South Ward will be headed by policy consultant and community advocate Dr Mary O'Sullivan.

"We are passionate about Marrickville. We are committed to delivering parks to be proud of, main streets with character and a Council that listens and acts on the concerns of residents." said Dr O'Sullivan

Local businessman Emanuel Tsardoulis will be running in West Ward.

"We are locals who live and work in Marrickville. We understand the challenges in our local community. We are frustrated by the dithering of the current Council. Our team will work hard to deliver for the residents of Marrickville."

Experienced Councillor and Marrickville High School community liaison officer, Sam Iskandar heads the ticket in Central Ward.

"Under the stewardship of the Greens, in the last 4 years there has been too much talk and not enough action. This new team will tackle the challenges head on and deliver results for our community."
